

Genesis Chapter 15

God Appears to Abram in a Vision

The chapter opens with God speaking directly to Abram:
“Do not be afraid... I am your shield; your very great reward.”

Abram is struggling with fear and uncertainty—particularly about having no heir.

Abram Voices His Deep Concern

Abram tells God that he remains childless and that his servant, Eliezer of Damascus, would inherit everything.

This is one of the rare moments where Abram openly expresses doubt and confusion about God’s earlier promises.
