

Psalm 145

Psalm 145 is David's final psalm in the Psalter and the only one explicitly titled "A Praise of David." It is an acrostic poem celebrating God's greatness, goodness, compassion, and faithfulness. Many scholars consider it a "summary of a lifetime of walking with God."

It is a psalm of overflowing worship, balancing God's majestic power with His tender kindness.